

- Slide 1 Title - Thanks to Liz, John - The Plan - Braeside, the last connection
- Slide 2 1834 – Blank canvas – Ste. Anne – Fort Senneville - Anticipation
- Slide 3 The changes – The names – Claude farm – Abbott farm – Wotherspoon – the Hill
- Slide 4 Abbott - 20 years a secret – Mansion – Family – eventually, the secret is out!
- Slide 5 Position – Wotherspoon land – Mansion – Family – Death of Abbott in 1893
- Slide 6 Position – bought a lot of land! – Mansion - Family
- Slide 7 Position – Land, Mansion - Family
- Slide 8 Position – Mansion –Family –Now 17 + 2 Abbotts- total young people
- Slides 9-13 Re-Cap Details of Pinoneault Map of 1907

From l'Anse a l'Orme in the north.

The Forget Land (the east portion is now the 'parc agricole Bois de la Roche')

The Claude Farm (Note the part of the Claude farm purchased by James Morgan in this wife's name, in 1892.)

The Morgan estate – Graystones

The northern part of the Angus land.

As each daughter married, the newlyweds built their own summer 'cottages', wedding gifts from R.B. Angus

Sir Edward Clouston in the south

Note the large part of the Abbott farm acquired by James Morgan, and that acquired by John Bethune Abbott and retained by Aurthur Abbott

Comment on remaining Abbott family and the misidentification of the Marler house of 1923 (Herbert Meredith Marler) and the Abbott house, "Hillcote"

Slides 14-15 Some photos of Senneville's "Downton Abbey"

Slides 16-17 Re-cap of the situation at the birth of the golf course.

Side 18 Creation and special place of Braeside

Slide 19 – 21 Some photos from Howard collection

Slide 22 -24 Purchase of the land in 1901 Note the “Clubhouse” on the Morgan land.
Also note the cost of $7800. (78 “shares” of $100). This was a game changer – the families were now bound together by joint ownership of land.

Slide 25

Minutes of “Incorporation” of Senneville Golf Links, Sept.3, 1902.

Slide 26

An early “Certificate of Stock” (The families are having fun, here)

Slide 27

The First Tee

Slide 28 - The clubhouse – Awareness of differentiating between owners and ‘players’. Clubhouse built from a subscription to an additional 30 ‘shares’, most of which were once again taken up by the Angus clan. Basic rules of ‘incorporation’.

Slide 29

The Lawrie competition of 1911. Note designation of “Senneville Golf Club”, not “Senneville Golf Links” – Membership.

I plan to focus on the golf course now, but one last bit of “historical what might have been” before I do.

Clouston: d.1912; Sen. Forget: d.1911 Change in the air.

Slide 30-32 Senneville Grove

Slide 33

Slide 34-35 Senneville Golf and Country Club

Slide 36 First mention of “Braeside” was in a letter in 1927 from A.E.Abbott to F.L.Wanklyn in which he writes: “The property stands in the name of Senneville Golf Links, and is rented to Senneville Club, Braeside Links, hence the current name of “Braeside Golf Club”

36-41

Passage of time

Slide 42-3

Need for expansion to present size – debate on what to do. Plan of Cleve Paterson accepted.

The current clubhouse.